Rolling Stone describes it as: “One of Moore’s best and most incisively funny films... A movie that matters.”

The conservative Financial Times notes: “Michael Moore takes aim at Trump and just about everyone else... Fahrenheit 11/9, let it be said, is massively entertaining.”

Tuesday October 23, 6:30pm, Lincoln Theater
Free admission for age 25 & under

The radical Truthout site comments: “He gets to some uncomfortable realities that have real political value, truths that will provoke at least some blue team voters to reconsider why approximately 100 million potential voters didn’t even bother voting — and why Trump won... Moore shows that both the Democrat and Republican Parties are obedient servants of the ruling class.”

Come to be entertained, provoked, and join the discussion. Above all, to be motivated to register to vote and to exercise that vote on November 6th.
